Scope and Content Note

The Mary Fourqurean Fry Collection documents Mary Fry Fritch's World War II career in the Womens Auxilary Army Corps and the Womens Army Corps. Spanning the years 1942-1946, the material is arranged chronologically by place of service and includes clippings, photographs, correspondence (letters, cards, and telegram), pamphlets, commencement and other programs (with the original signature of WAC commander Oveta Hobby and Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers), radio broadcasts, and poetry.

The collection contains one document box of material relating to WAAC enlistment proceedures; the WAAC Officer Training Program at Des Moines; WAC life at Camp Upton, New York; overseas service at Naples, Italy; and a small amount of information concerning the V-E Day celebration in Italy and Mrs. Fritch's retirement from service.

The collection also includes clippings and correspondence which document the development of the WAC Mother's Club, a national organization which included Mrs. Fritch's mother among its state leaders.
