

GEORGE C. MARSHALL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

COLLECTION SUMMARY SHEET

COLLECTION: LEON THOMAS DAVID PAPERS
ACCESSION NUMBER: ~~419m~~ 79
DONOR: Leon Thomas David
DATE OF GIFT: 1979
SIZE: 1 ff
INCLUSIVE DATES: 1939-1943

BIOGRAPHICAL AND SUBJECT SUMMARY:

Leon Thomas David served as commandant of the School for Special Services for the first four months of its operation in Lexington, Virginia (1942-1943). Prior to that he was with the Morale Branch of the Adjutant Generals' office (the precursor of the School) and assistant commandant of the School while it was at Ft. Meade, Maryland.

While associated with the School for Special Services, David kept a diary of events leading to the formation of the School, problems faced by it and his role in the School.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION AND ARRANGEMENT:

Photocopy of diary in one folder.

RESTRICTIONS: None
LOCATION: Minor Collections File Cabinet
COLLECTION REGISTER AVAILABLE: no