COLLECTION: L.J. Lincoln Collection

ACCESSION NUMBER: 190

DONOR: L.J. Lincoln

DATE OF GIFT: April 23, 1996

SIZE: 2 folders

INCLUSIVE DATES: 1945 (also correspondence from 1993-1994 about this time)

BIOGRAPHICAL AND SUBJECT SUMMARY:

L.J. Lincoln was a colonel during World War II, chief of the Asiatic Theater Section. He was also Wedemeyer's EXO in SEAC on Mountbatten's staff.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION AND ARRANGEMENT:

Two folders in small collections. The first is correspondence between Judy Munro-Leighton, William McAfee, and L.J. Lincoln concerning the China policy of World War II. The second folder is made up of copies of once-classified documents related to the China policy.

RESTRICTIONS: none

LOCATIONS: small collections

COLLECTION REGISTER AVAILABLE: no