

GEORGE C. MARSHALL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

COLLECTION SUMMARY SHEET

COLLECTION: Donald Mace Papers

ACCESSION NUMBER: 25m

DONOR: Donald Mace

DATE OF GIFT: August 14, 1962

SIZE: 90 items

INCLUSIVE DATES: 1934-1940

BIOGRAPHICAL AND SUBJECT SUMMARY:

Donald Mace was the editor of the Air Force Times. From 1936-1938, he served as the district educational advisor for the Civilian Conservation Corps, under General George C. Marshall. He presently resides in Washington, D.C.

The collection consists of handbooks and guideline forms for the Civilian Conservation Corps' educational program and job placement services of which he was the district educational advisor.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION AND ARRANGEMENT:

The collection is arranged by subject into three folders.

RESTRICTIONS: None

LOCATION: Minor Collections File Cabinet

COLLECTION REGISTER AVAILABLE: Yes