

GENERAL G. C. MARSHALL
DODONA MANOR
LEESBURG, VIRGINIA

July 24-50

Dear Rose:

I have just this moment opened the package with the leather frame and the two photographs of the boys.
The container is attractive and the photographs of the boys charming & they have such interesting and really charming faces and expressions.
You are good to remember me in this way and I find treasure the pictures - put them on my dressing table with the one of you and me in 1924 that Celeste sent me several years ago.

I saw Wesley Edwards in Detroit and he spoke of you. He has been needs of a member of the National Red Cross, I got him last fall and was delighted to get him elected to the Board. He will go far, I think, in public life.

We leave for New York the 21st and leave New York the 2<sup>d</sup> for Ham Mountain Camp on Lake Umbagog in northern Newhampshire - have taken a cottage for the month.
Most confidentially, I have been trembling on the edge of being called again into public service in this crisis, but I hope to get by unmolested, but when the President settles down and sits under our oaks and tells me of his difficulties, he has me at a disadvantage.

With my love, and thanks, and my best to John and each of the boys, Affectionately,
L. C. M.
