

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

WASHINGTON, D. C.

9-21-51

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

P. 2

With regard to my papers, as I explained
several times to General Palmer there is little or no historical interest.
I remained throughout the war out as Secretary of State from expressing

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

news or editorial or

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

International affairs in personal or semi-official Correspondence, I did
this because of the inevitable
razzards ~~to~~ regarding publicly out, as to my military Correspondence, to avoid any chance of Confusion in the minds of

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

The recipient believes

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

what I write and the ^{Campaign} directions from the Operation section ^{over} my signature.

For example, Eisenhauer writes me frequently and at considerable length. But I seldom if ever replied in my personal Correspondence. His letters are in 4

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Official files. The

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

answers are a part of the subsequent directives.

I will consider the matter further but I see little of historical interest involved, and have the impression that my actions were few,

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

WASHINGTON, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

for between and relatively colorless.